Says He Doesn't Believe Taxes Can Or Should Be Increased Above Present Level; Stands With Secretary On Criticism of McCarthy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today he doubts whether taxes next year can or should be raised above the present level.

Eisenhower made the statement in reply to questions at a news conference at which he also supported Secretary of State Dulles in statements Dulles issued yesterday in criticism of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) in the field of foreign policy.

On the big domestic problem of taxes and government finances generally, Eisenhower said that what the administration can do to bring the budget near to balance is to eliminate duplication and improve efficiency generally.

He said his officials are taking a number of steps toward this end and added he is prepared to take credit in advance for them.

Eisenhower also:

Chief to Give Report of Hall To His Board

St. Louis Police Commissioner Will Tell of Interview

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Chief of Police Jeremiah O'Connell will report to the Board of Police Commissioners today on his interview with Carl Austin Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady.

O'Connell and Edward L. Dwyer, St. Louis Circuit attorney, questioned the kidnap-killers of Bobby Greenleaf in death row at the Missouri penitentiary Monday in an effort to find $303,720 of the $600,000 Greenleaf ransom money.

There was a report that the board also might act on the resignation of Lt. Louis Shoulters, who arrested Hall, at the meeting (1:30 p.m. CST).

Shoulters submitted his resignation Oct. 25 in protest against an investigation by the board of Hall's arrest.

Following study of statements made by Hall and Mrs. Heady Monday, the board is expected to question Shoulters and Patrolman Elmer Dolan, who helped on the arrest, again.

Both officers said they took the suitcases containing the ransom money to the district police station with Hall. Hall said the suitcases were left in his hotel room.

Also, Hall said, he was certain he had most of the ransom money when he was arrested, but less than half of it was found when the suitcases were opened at the police station.

U. S. Atty. Edward L. Scheufler of Kansas City, where a federal grand jury also is investigating the missing money, visited FBI officials and Harry Richards, U. S. attorney here, yesterday.

Richards said later that no move will be made to transfer the grand jury investigation from the western federal district of Missouri at Kansas City to the eastern district here until there is some "factual information" that the money is in this district.

35th Division Tops Area Units In Training

The 35th Infantry Division, National Guard, with headquarters at the Armory, has been notified by Fifth Army Area headquarters that it outranked the six other divisions in the area in training efficiency at last summer's training stint at Camp Ripley, Minn.

During the two weeks the divisions attended their various training camps, they were inspected by groups of officers sent out by the Fifth Army Area headquarters. These teams accompanied all units during their entire training period at the camps, according to Lt. Col. James M. Blue, adjutant general of the 35th Division.

The teams' observations were later compiled into a National Guard training inspection report for each company-sized unit. The company reports were then combined by division to arrive at a training index or rating, and in this the 35th Division topped the list.

Five principal factors are considered in establishing the index, Col. Blue said. These are: the percentage of men qualified with individual weapons; the percentage of men qualified with crew service weapons; previous field training experience; command, staff and technical experience; and the training each man has received in his assigned job.

A similar index will be compiled later for all National Guard Divisions in the country.

Along with the top rating on the training report, some 34 companies of the 35th Division have received efficiency certificates, Col. Blue said.

Maurice Kelley New President Of AFL Firemen

Maurice Kelley was elected president of the International Association of Fire Fighters, Sedalia Local, No. 823, AFL, at the annual election held Monday night at Fire Station No. 2.

Other officers elected are: Leo Gentges, vice-president; Edward Shine, secretary-treasurer; trustees, Vincent Sullivan, chairman, Robert McPherson and Chester Anderson; sergeant-at-arms, Lee May; Sedalia Federation of Labor representatives, Rudolph Swope, Walker DeLapp and Edwin Holman.

The Rev. W. P. Arnold, pastor of the East Sedalia Baptist Church, was elected chaplain of the fire department.

Following the meeting refreshments of coffee and doughnuts were served at which time Rev. Arnold was present.

Drizzle No Fizzle

For the first time in weeks the forecast fizzle was no fizzle today. It rained! The moisture was so welcome that shoppers went about their trips downtown at a slow gait, most of them not protected by umbrellas or raincoats.

Rain tonight and Thursday; high Thursday in the 50s, low tonight in the 40s.

The temperature at 7 a. m. was 50; 32 at 1 p. m., and 50 at 2 p. m. Rainfall up to 2 p. m., .33 inch.

One year ago today here high 42, low 32. Two years ago high 67, low 51.

Stage at Lake of the Ozarks: 45.6, no change.

GIDDINGS, Tex. (AP)—Winds leading a cold front through Texas today coiled into tornadoes that struck twice. Seven persons were injured but none killed.

Both twisters hit in south central Texas—the first at Seguin last night, the second at the Tanglewood community near here early today.

4. Voiced complete confidence in Attorney General Brownell, and announced that the Justice Department plans to make public, possibly later in the day, a complete report on what Eisenhower termed events in the outlying cities.

Clayton Fritchey, deputy chairman of the Democratic National Committee, has contended communism - in - government charges against the Truman administration were brought up by Brownell in an effort to divert attention from his own department.

Eisenhower arrived for today's news conference three minutes late. Natty in a slate blue suit, with a blue shirt and blue figured tie, the President announced that he had two or three subjects on which he wanted to volunteer information. He talked first of Bermuda plans, and then of Nixon's tour.

Pausing momentarily at that point, Eisenhower said he had noticed headlines in the newspapers on a certain matter. Whipping out his horn rimmed glasses, the President said he had prepared a written statement on that matter and would have nothing more to say about it.

N. Y. Papers Still Tied Up By Big Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—AFL photo-engravers refused today to end a strike which has closed all of New York's major newspapers.

By a vote of 289 to 47, the strikers rejected a plea by their international union chief to accept arbitration on four major issues.

The government also had asked the union to submit the issues with six New York publishers to arbitration or to a decision by a neutral party.

The strike now is in its fifth day. There was no indication immediately what steps now will be taken to end the deadlock.

The shut down of the newspapers hit the city at the beginning of the Christmas season buying rush.

Department stores reported sales falling off. The public was without its usual quota of 5 1/2 million daily newspapers.

The Herald Tribune, the only major paper in the city not struck, suspended publication Monday night in sympathy with the other dailies. The Herald Tribune was not struck because its photoengraving is done by an outside commercial firm.

The issues before the striking engravers today were wages and welfare benefits, hours, the number of annual holidays and the duration of a new contract.

When today's vote was arranged last night, Federal Mediator Bernard J. Forman said: "I am hopeful the arbitration proposal may receive a favorable reception."

The publishers agreed to arbitration last week, before the strike started and at a time when there were more issues in dispute. The photoengravers rejected arbitration at a membership meeting Friday, and the strike became effective early Saturday.

Members of other newspaper unions honored the picket lines of the 400 photoengravers, forcing the six newspapers to halt publication. Neither the union nor the Publishers Assn. of New York City, which represents the newspapers, gave any public indication last night when publication might be resumed if the photoengravers agreed today to arbitration. The struck newspapers are the Times, Daily News and Daily Mirror, all morning papers; and the World Telegram & Sun, Journal-American and Post, afternoon papers.

The Herald Tribune went through the motions of putting together a 62-page paper for today to keep everything ready to roll when the strike is settled—but operations were stopped short of the press room.

The seven closed papers have a circulation of almost 5 1/2 million. About 22,000 employees are idle.

Ag Official Slaps At Farm Controls

ST. LOUIS (AP)—An official of the department of agriculture, critical of farm controls, has said the nation "cannot depend on restrictive measures to bring supply and demand into balance."

J. Earl Coke, assistant secretary of agriculture, told the annual convention of the Vegetable Growers Association of America here yesterday that since controls idle a part of the nation's resources they are contrary to the policy of a full-production economy and "react to the economy of the nation."

The present administration, he said, seeks "a minimum of restrictions on farm production and marketing to permit the maximum of dependence on a free market."

Dr. Laughlin Dies

Some Labor Disputes Settled, Others Begin Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

The CIO United Steelworkers called a strike today against two of the nation's largest car makers, but longshoremen in New York and New Jersey returned to work after a one-day work stoppage.

A third major labor dispute, involving photo engravers, tied up six of the seven major New York City newspapers.

The waterfront work stoppage ended with a steady return of workers to piers after a one-day rebellion against rules of a newly created commission which now controls the harbor area.

The latest strike was called at midnight by the CIO United Steel-

Parade Plans Going Ahead Despite Rain

Santa Is Scheduled To Be In Gay Event Here Friday Night

"Watch for the change of plans in the newspaper if the weather committee doesn't function right," Guy Peabody, parade director, announces to participants of the Christmas parade.

As the rain came down Wednesday morning, with weather forecast of sleet or snow, he began to think the weather committee might be letting him down. He wants everybody to know what to do in case such a thing should happen to the Santa Claus parade set for Friday night, Dec. 4.

The final instructions for the parade are as follows: Those in the parade will please enter 16th Street from the west at Barrett, and proceed east toward Grand. Parade marshals will tell each where to get in line.

The public is asked to cooperate and stay off 16th from Ohio to Barrett between the hours of 6 and 7, as cars on that street will interfere with the organization of the parade.

It will be necessary to have between 50 and 75 marshals to assist in lining up and the following of the line of the parade. Each marshal must have a cane and it would be very helpful if they also have a whistle and a flashlight. A yardstick would do in place of a cane.

As the parade gets underway it will move east to Ohio, then north on Ohio in close formation until it just about reaches the armory, when units will separate according to space required—while space will be maintained by the marshals. All on foot may join the parade at the armory. All other units must be ready on 16th at 6:30 p. m. unless otherwise instructed because the parade will start promptly at 7 o'clock.

The parade will continue north on Ohio to Main, west on Main to Osage, south on Osage to Second, east on Second to Ohio and double back south on Ohio.

Deciding Gouzenko Question

Senate Spy Hunters Meet Today to Set Course On Getting Canadian's Testimony

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate spy hunters meet today to decide what to do about questioning Igor Gouzenko. They disclosed yesterday that the FBI reported information from the former Russian code clerk had enabled it to identify a U.S. scientist as a Soviet agent.

Chairman Jenner (R-Ind.) of the Senate internal security subcommittee, indicated the group was not likely to press the issue in view of Gouzenko's reported objection to being questioned. Jenner said in an interview in Louisville, Ky., "I don't want him to testify if he feels it will endanger him and his family."

Gouzenko, who once expressed willingness to talk to the investigators, said in a copyrighted article written for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and Toronto Telegram he decided not to allow the interview, for reasons of personal and family safety. He has been living in an undisclosed place under an assumed name, with Canadian government protection.

The internal security subcommittee, in releasing excerpts from the November 1945 FBI report, deleted the name of the scientist, described by the FBI as a wartime consultant to Fleet Adm. Ernest J. King, then commander in chief of the U.S. fleet.

The FBI said, as quoted by the subcommittee, that its information indicated the scientist may have furnished data on the Navy's proximate future to Dr. Allan Nunn May, British scientist who confessed in 1946 to passing atomic secrets to the Russians.

This portion of the FBI report was revealed by the subcommittee as one of the reasons it was to question Gouzenko, who fled from the Soviet Embassy in Ottawa in September 1945 and tipped Canadian authorities to a Russian spy network reaching into the United States.

The excerpts were described as part of the 71-page report which Atty. Gen. Brownell has said was sent to former President Truman and various officials in November 1945. The documents, containing information about an alleged espionage ring in the government, was reported sent to then Secretary of the Navy, James B. Forrestal, among others.

After a closed meeting on procedure, the subcommittee goes into public session today to question William L. Ullmann, who has been named as a member of a wartime Soviet spy ring along with the late Harry Dexter White and others.

Brownell has asserted that Truman promoted White in the face of FBI reports that White was a Russian spy. Truman has replied he refrained from stopping an appointment for White to safeguard an FBI probe.

Ullmann is a former subordinate and associate of White in the Treasury Department. In testifying before the Senate investigation subcommittee last Oct. 21, Ullmann refused to say whether he was a Communist then or whether he had engaged in espionage activities while with the Treasury.

He invoked his constitutional protection against possible self-incrimination also when asked whether he knew White was an espionage agent.

The FBI report quoted by the internal security subcommittee said that the scientist, identified only as "X" in the subcommittee version, "has been determined by this bureau to be a contact of 'Y' (this name also was deleted by the subcommittee) in Montreal, Canada, one of the espionage agents in Canada being operated by Red army intelligence."

The report went on: "Gouzenko's story with regard to 'X' is that he was originally recruited by one Frieda in Canada. After 'X' left McGill University in Montreal, Canada, where he was employed, and obtained a position with the Office of Scientific Research and Development, he was turned over to Soviet representatives in the United States."

"X" is a native born American citizen who has specialized in the field of zoology.

Information developed by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police indicated that it is possible that "X" was the individual who furnished information concerning the Navy's radar proximity fuse to Dr. Allan Nunn May."

Shoemaker Buys In With Hogan, Form Homakers Inc.

Jack Shoemaker has purchased from Maurice Hogan an interest in what has been known as Hogan's Furniture Co., and the two have formed a corporation to operate the firm on West Main under the name of Homakers Inc.

Resigning his position as commercial manager with the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., Shoemaker will assume active management of the new firm on Saturday of this week. Hogan will be president of the corporation and Shoemaker will serve as vice president and treasurer.

Hogan stated that since he assumed the position of postmaster at the Sedalia Post Office he has not been able to devote any time to his business and is pleased now to have a partner who will hold the active reins of management.

From 1939 to 1942 Hogan was manager of the furniture store which was the predecessor of his firm, that was the Finance Outlet Co., owned by R. M. Battles. In March of 1947 he returned and purchased the store from Battles and was active in the operation until assuming the postmastership in July of 1952.

Shoemaker, a native Sedalian, returned here in December of 1951 as commercial manager for the telephone company and will relinquish that position on Friday of this week.

Hogan, too, is a native Sedalian who attended the Whittier and St.

Patrick's grade schools and was graduated from Smith-Cotton High School. He received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the University of Missouri in 1936 and was employed by the J. C. Penney Co., at Kalamazoo, Mich., from the time of his graduation to 1939. It was then he came to the Battles store here.

Leaving here in 1942, he went to Jefferson City as manager of the furniture department for a Montgomery Ward store. In 1943 he was promoted to assistant manager of Ward's store in Springfield. The Navy offered him a commission as a lieutenant (j.g.) in 1944 and he accepted, serving in the anti-submarine service until November, 1945. At the time of his separation from service he returned to Ward's and managed the furniture department of the Wichita, Kan., store, transferred to the Little Rock, Ark., store as assistant manager in 1946. He left there when he purchased the Finance Outlet Furniture Co. here.

A member of Sacred Heart Church, Knights of Columbus, Optimist Club, American Legion and BPO Elks, he is a member of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, Red Cross, Community Chest, and S-Club and is active in the Community Playhouse and Red Cross fund campaign.

He and his wife, the former Jane McEniry, and their eight children make their home at 602 West Seventh. The children are: Margaret Ellen, Mary Patricia, Michael Joseph, Charles Roberts, Elizabeth Ann, Martin Dennis, Maurice Timothy and Teresa Ellen.

Shoemaker came here in '41 from Webster Groves, where he had been serving with Southwestern Bell. He was graduated from Smith-Cotton High School and attended Missouri Valley University and Missouri Valley College, Marshall, from which he received his bachelor's degree in business administration.

Immediately following college, he entered the Navy and served three years, most of the time on board a small carrier, the USS Guadalcanal. He was separated from service in 1945 as a lieutenant.

Following that he was with the J. C. Penney Co., until he joined the telephone company in 1947.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker, the latter the former Alice Chipman, and children Sally and Jim, reside at 1007 West Seventh. He is a member of the Fifth Street Methodist Church, is a director of the Chamber of Commerce and a director-elect of the Kiwanis Club.

Ike Won't Talk On Red Chinese Joining the UN

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today flatly ruled out any negotiation with Prime Minister J. Chou and Premier Liu Shao-chi on Red Chinese membership in the United Nations.

The President told a news conference that he hoped the Big Three meeting opening Friday would produce greater understanding among the American, British and French governments so that they can coordinate all their efforts in a friendly manner and avoid getting into clashes.

He said the three will take up a whole series of specific problems, practically move around the world and try to reach composite and cooperative decisions.

The question of Red China came up when the President was asked whether the present position on membership for Communist China in the United Nations would be a subject for negotiation at Bermuda. He replied that in the present circumstances the subject was not open to negotiation.

The United States is firmly opposed to Red membership in the United Nations so long as the country is at war with the U. N. In Korea, and otherwise, in the American view, acting in an unacceptable manner.

The President opened his conference with an announcement that he would leave Washington for Bermuda at 8 a. m. EST Friday. He said there was no formal list of subjects to be discussed at the conference.

After the conference a White House press release disclosed today there will be 11 persons in the U. S. delegation, including Secretary of State Dulles and the President's psychological warfare advisor C. D. Jackson.

Guilty In Setting Big Forest Fire

SALEM, Mo. (AP)—Two Salem men today pleaded guilty to setting a fire which burned over between 700 and 1,000 acres of farm and forest land north of here last Sunday and Monday.

The men, Gilbert Stagner and Edgar Malone, were arrested early today by Harry Feltz, a conservation officer, and assessed $9.50 in costs in magistrate court.

They said they had attempted to smoke out a squirrel by setting fire to a tree.

Sam B. Cook Named To Health Council

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Gov. Phil M. Donnelly reappointed Sam B. Cook, Jefferson City banker, to the advisory council for the State Health Division today.

The council members, who serve without pay, review hospital needs and decide whether federal hospital construction funds under the Hill-Burton program should be spent.

Mayor Kemp Nominated To Head Muni Congress

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Mayor William E. Kemp of Kansas City, Mo., was nominated today for the presidency of the American Municipal Congress.

Kemp's name was the only one submitted by the nominating committee before the election, scheduled for the afternoon session.

Probable Big 3 Harmony

See Quick Approval Of Terse Reply To Red Proposal For Big 4 Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States, Britain and France probably will agree quickly at Bermuda on a terse, favorable but questioning reply to Russia's proposal for a Big Four meeting.

Indications strongly suggest, however, that even though a four-power session is held, probably at Berlin in about two months, it will simply be a conference table continuation of the deadlock between Moscow and the West which has been pointed up in the recent exchange of notes with Russia.

Two sets of facts stand out in this regard:

1. Secretary of State Dulles told a news conference yesterday the only real issue in East-West relations is a "fresh breath of freedom" behind the Iron Curtain. In other words, Dulles says, the Western Powers' purpose in meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov will be to try to reduce the area of the Kremlin's control through agreements covering Eastern Germany and Eastern Austria.
2. Molotov said in his note last Thursday proposing the meeting in Berlin that the one big thing Russia wants to talk about is a place for Red China in the councils of the great powers. In other words, Molotov has made clear he will demand agreements from the three Western Powers recognizing an enlarged area of Soviet influence, if not domination.

Red China and Eastern Germany and Austria are widely separated places, but the principle running through these contradictory proposals is the same. There is presently no evidence of any room for compromise between the Soviet determination to expand its power and the determination expressed by the United States at least, the Western side to force that power to pull back.

Hence, authorities here believe the problem in any four-power meeting will be to fix responsibility for failure to reach agreement.

One initial but widespread reaction on this point was that it would be wise to try to nail the Russians down to a precise agenda for the conference. This may be attempted. However, the present feeling is that it would be unwise for the Western nations to get involved in any long discussions with the Soviets over an agenda since the U. S. government believes that the best thing to do with the meeting is to get it held as quickly as possible.

Nevertheless, it was said some further effort must be made to find out what the Russians have in mind and to make clear to the Soviets what the United States has in mind, which is to talk about Germany and Austria. These matters may be handled either by addressing some direct questions to Molotov or by stating Western intentions and letting him react.

Former Treasury Employee Won't Answer Questions

WASHINGTON (AP)—William Ludwig Ullmann, former Treasury Department employee, refused today to answer questions from Senate investigators as to whether he ever engaged in espionage against the United States. He pleaded an answer "might tend to incriminate me."

Ullmann was called to the witness chair of the Senate internal security subcommittee in a renewal of its digging into how the Truman administration treated government officials linked in FBI reports with Soviet spying.

At the same time, it was disclosed that the subcommittee has invited testimony tomorrow from John W. Snyder, secretary of the Treasury under Truman.

The group wants to ask Snyder why he promoted and praised Harold E. Glasser, a former Treasury official who was named by the FBI along with Ullmann and the late Harry Dexter White in a secret 1946 report as believed to be connected with Russian espionage.

Vote On School Bonds

FULTON, Mo. (AP)—The Fulton School District will vote tomorrow on a $281,000 bond proposal to be used for the improvement of all schools in the city.

It appeared, the issue will not result in an increase in the present levy.

19 SHOPPING DAYS LEFT

Members of other newspaper unions honored the photoengravers' picket lines, forcing the six newspapers to halt publication. The Herald Tribune, only major paper not struck, suspended publication Monday night in sympathy with the six other dailies. Some 22,000 workers have been made idle.

The longest major strike—more than five weeks—was against the North American Aviation by the CIO United Auto Workers in plants in Los Angeles and Fresno, Calif., and Columbus, Ohio. Some 33,000 workers quit their jobs Oct. 25 in a dispute over wages.

CHRISTMAS SEALS!

For the first time in weeks the forecast fizzle was no fizzle today. It rained! The moisture was so welcome that shoppers went about their trips downtown at a slow gait, most of them not protected by umbrellas or raincoats.

Rain tonight and Thursday; high Thursday in the 50s, low tonight in the 40s.

The temperature at 7 a. m. was 50; 32 at 1 p. m., and 50 at 2 p. m. Rainfall up to 2 p. m., .33 inch.

One year ago today here high 42, low 32. Two years ago high 67, low 51.

UN Appears Uneasy Over Korean Debate

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Non-Communist U. N. delegates appeared generally agitated today against debating the explosive Korean question at this delicate stage in negotiations for a peace conference.

Only the Soviet bloc, smarting under the denunciation its Red colleagues in Korea and China are receiving in the bitter atrocities debate, was reported pressing for immediate discussion of the general Korean issue, despite the Assembly's Dec. 8 target date to recess or adjourn.

India was said to be seeking a recess rather than adjournment—as was done last year—so the Assembly could be on tap if needed to discuss the Korean issue. The United States and other powers reportedly oppose the move on grounds that it might inspire the Reds to stir things up in Korea for the express purpose of bringing the Assembly back into session.

The atrocity debate continued in the 60-nation Assembly today with the United States scheduled to lash back at Russia's denial of American charges that the Reds massacred thousands of captured soldiers and civilians in Korea.

American Chief Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., who has challenged the Russians to permit an impartial commission access to all of Korea to probe the charges, was expected to accuse the Soviet bloc of attempting to cloud the atrocity issue with a rehash of old Communist charges.

The United States and Britain have declared their firm opposition to any debate on Korea while Special Ambassador Arthur Dean is talking with the Communists at Panmunjom about arranging a peace parley.

India recently was reported in favor of debate on the Korean issue as soon as possible but was said to have swung around to the Western view.

Soviet Union Asks Pakistan to Clarify Statement on U. S.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union has asked Pakistan to clarify press reports that the Karachi government is negotiating with the United States to trade air bases for arms. A stiff Russian note says such a pact would have a "direct bearing" on Soviet security.

The note, published by all Moscow newspapers today, also asserted there had been press reports that Pakistan and the United States were negotiating "on the question of Pakistan joining in plans to set up a military aggressive bloc in the Middle East."

"The Soviet Union," it added, "cannot regard with indifference the reports about the negotiations. (Both American and Pakistani officials have denied rumors of U. S.-Pakistan negotiations on any bases-for-arms deal. The reports, circulated following the visit to Washington last month by Pakistani Governor General Ghalum Mohammed, have sparked alarm in India, Pakistan's neighbor.)

Nixon Sees Poorest Farmers, In Punjab

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—U. S. Vice-President Richard Nixon and his party visited the dusty, parched Punjab today and met some of the poorest farmers they have seen in their Asiatic tour.

But the residents of three mud villages they called at gave the Americans a friendly greeting of salaams, music and marigold garlands.

The 50-mile round-trip visit, sometimes through choking dust, gave Nixon another slant on India's complex problems before his first "business session" with Prime Minister Nehru tonight.

Miss Florence Martin Exchanges Vows With Joseph Westermier At Tipton

Miss Florence Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin, Syracuse, exchanged wedding vows at nine o'clock in the morning, November 14, with Mr. Joseph Westermier, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Westermier, 2400 South Kentucky, at St. Andrew's Catholic Church in Tipton. The double ring service was performed by the Rev. Benedict Harder before an altar decorated with white gladioli and lighted tapers. The mass servers were Arnold Knipp and John Wirths, cousins of the bride. The organist, Mrs. Oscar Schmidt, played traditional nuptial music preceding the ceremony and accompanied the adult choir of the church as it sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin trimmed with Chantilly lace ruffles. A wide lace ruffle joined to the nylon tulle yoke and satin bodice created an off the shoulder illusion for the fitted bodice which buttoned down the back with tiny satin covered buttons. The long sleeves tapered to a point over the hands. The long full satin skirt, designated with lace tiers in front, fell into a lace edged train. Her fingertip length veil cascaded from a wreath of orange blossoms and her only jewelry was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums centered with a corsage of red roses.

Miss Rosemary Westermier, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of fuchsia satin and tulle fashioned with a snug fitting bodice and very full tulle floor length skirt over satin. The skirt was trimmed with two rows of tulle ruffling. Her headdress was a satin bandeau with a small cluster of pompons on one side. She carried a bouquet of orchid mums.

The wedding ceremony took place at 9 p. m. at the Legion Hall in La Monte. There were 42 present.

Among the out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Boner, Mr. Fred Barrington, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Martin and Emil of Booneville; Mr. and Mrs. Andy Kraus, Virgil and David, Pilot Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Kutenkuler, Tipton; Mr. and Mrs. John Westermier, Janie and Mattie, Sedalia and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Reusch, Mora, and Rev. Benedict Harder and Rev. H. J. Brett.

The bridegroom is engaged in farming. They will reside on a farm near La Monte.

Churchill's Life Gives Tips To Those Who Would Live to 80

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—All who want to live into their 80th year should take a few tips from Winston Churchill.

He is the best known artist of living in our time. Why? It can be put into one word—gusto.

"All babies look like me," he quipped once. And he has retained the qualities that mark all healthy children—imagination, curiosity, enthusiasm, and the desire to keep on growing up.

Churchill was born with a silver spoon in his mouth, saw it change to brass, and by his own efforts turned it into gold.

The human race may number many in its long history who out-lived him, but none who crowded so many hours with so much pure zest, none who had a greater appetite for living. American football brags about its 60-minute player, but in the tremendous battlefield of life Churchill has seen nearly 60 years of continuous action—and at 79 is still going at a gallop.

How has he been able to do it? His own words and a study of his career give the answer. He has been able to take everything in stride.

Most men are afraid of death, defeat and responsibility. Churchill has never been afraid to be greatly right—or greatly wrong. He has never run from death or hesitated to outface fear. He has undertaken mighty responsibilities, not as irksome duties but as welcome adventures.

"Power, for the sake of lording it over fellow creatures or adding to personal pomp, is rightly judged base," he wrote. "But power in a national crisis, when a man believes he knows what orders should be given, is a blessing."

Churchill has never lost faith in himself, in victory or defeat. He never took his goals too lightly or himself too seriously. He has never lost his sense of humor.

"If Hitler invaded Hell," he said once, "I would make at least a favorable reference to the Devil in the House of Commons."

Churchill would have been completely at home in any age—from the dawn of the caveman to the dawn of the next century, which he is currently trying to redesign. Perhaps the nearest men America has produced like him were Benjamin Franklin and Thomas Jefferson, although neither went at quite his pace.

"This world is a fen," said

Churchill, and although his last big hope is to turn it into a peaceful garden, he loved the wars along the way almost as much as the roses.

He is an actor, a painter, an orator, a statesman, philosopher, warrior, and literary genius. He wrote fine history, and he made fine history—with both his words and his deeds.

His restless mind plumbled all pleasures of body and spirit, questioned all creeds, yet was unashamed to pray for succor to a God whose ways he couldn't understand.

The idea that nothing is true except what we comprehend is silly," he said, in summing up his youthful religious doubt.

Churchill has played and worked with equal fervor all his life, and yet is a stout defender of the afternoon nap.

The rest and the spell of sleep in the middle of the day refresh the human frame far more than a long night," he wrote. "We were not made by nature to work, or even to play, from 8 o'clock in the morning till midnight. We throw a strain upon our system which is unfair and imprudent. For every purpose of business or pleasure, mental or physical, we ought to break our days and our marches into two."

So if you want to live a rich full life like Churchill's all you have to do is savor both the sour and sweet of this world, don't be afraid, enjoy your work as much as you play—and get that afternoon nap.

Nothing else to it. Except ability.

WALHALLA, S. C. (AP)—Mrs. Mrs. Rod Turnbull, born on a Dec. 13, has no fear of 13's.

She was born in the 13th year of her parent's marriage and was the 13th grandchild in her generation. There are 13 letters in her maiden name and her 13th birthday came on a Friday the 13th.

She never plans things for her lucky day, the 13th, so avoids being married on that date. But she sailed from the United States to join her husband in Japan's occupation forces on a 13th, and she and her husband sailed back home on a 13th.

Oct. 31 marked the end of the year for the Druids, ancient religious order in France, England and Ireland.

mental or physical, we ought to break our days and our marches into two."

So if you want to live a rich full life like Churchill's all you have to do is savor both the sour and sweet of this world, don't be afraid, enjoy your work as much as you play—and get that afternoon nap.

Nothing else to it. Except ability.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT OF IMPORTANCE TO HOME FURNISHING BUYERS OF CENTRAL MISSOURI

Hogan's Furniture Company, 214 West Main Street, takes pleasure in announcing another step forward in becoming one of central Missouri's dominant home furnishing outlets.

The Hogans have incorporated, and from now on will be known as Homakers, Inc., Furniture.

To assist Maurice Hogan, president of Homakers, Inc., Jack H. Shoemaker, former manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, has resigned his position with that organization and will become vice-president and manager of Homakers, Inc.

Mr. Shoemaker will be at Homakers starting Saturday, December 5th, and is looking forward to greeting all of the present friends of Hogan's Furniture Co., and extends a cordial invitation to all home makers of this area to come in and get acquainted.

The aim of Homakers, Inc. will remain the same as Hogan's---to strive to offer you, the home furnishing buyers of central Missouri, the friendliest of service together with the finest furniture values at the lowest possible prices.

Mrs. Agnes Corson, Credit Manager with 18 years furniture experience, and Mr. James Cooney, who joined Mr. Hogan in 1952 will remain with Homakers to serve you promptly and courteously for your home furnishing needs. Noah Harris, who has been with Hogan's for 5 years will continue to be your courteous delivery man assisted by Forrest Carter.

ROK Prisoners Rebuff UN Explainers

PANMUNJOM (AP) — Thirty passive South Koreans unanimously chose communism in today's opening round of Allied efforts to win back 381 South Korean, British and American war prisoners who haven't returned.

The recorded strains of South Korea's national anthem played in the background as 27 men and 3 women listened quietly to ROK officers read a plea to come home. Then each walked out the door leading back to communism.

It appeared possible the Allies drew from a stacked deck. The first group was chosen by the prisoners themselves in the Communist-dominated camp. Observers speculated each of the 30 might be a confirmed Red.

Thirty more South Koreans are to be interviewed Thursday (7 p.m. Wednesday EST).

Original plans called for 30 South Koreans to be interviewed daily for about 11 days before 22 Americans and one Briton are called, but a high American officer said the schedule is "not inflexible," indicating the non-Koreans might be called sooner.

The 30-0 score gives the Reds a propaganda theme to take some of the edge off the humiliating beating they took in their interviews. They got back less than 3 per cent of 2,500 Chinese and Koreans.

This was the first total blank. The Communists, however, met groups from 136 to almost 500, calling a compound at a time with no chance for special groups to be maneuvered into the interview tents.

Meanwhile, in a negotiation hut nearby, the Allies all but rejected a Red proposal for a Korean peace conference after a day of studying a Communist plan offered Wednesday.

U.S. Delegate Arthur H. Dean told the Reds there are two basic points on which both sides could agree, but he accused them of attempting to slip an "enormous joker" into the conference by calling for Russia to attend as a neutral.

Dean said the two points of agreement are that the conference should be between the two belligerent sides and that each side should vote as a unit with unanimous decisions necessary.

Dean has proposed that the Russians sit in as a "third party" — neither neutral nor belligerent. However, he said the Red plan holds a "built-in filibuster" by which the Russians — as neutrals — could tie up the conference in talk "like a vehicle with no brake, no clutch, no governor."

The negotiators meet again Thursday (9 p.m. Wednesday, EST).

The prisoner interviews were strikingly calm compared to the wild, brawling sessions the Reds had with the Chinese and Koreans.

The blue-uniformed prisoners walked through the mud into the five explanation tents on a bare hillside and sat quietly.

The South Korean explainers read their statements, scarcely deviating from the text.

They promised the prisoners that if they returned the government would give them promotions, rewards, medical treatment and pardons for any crimes they might have committed in North Korea.

A 22-year-old girl prisoner who chose communism propped her head in one hand as she listened, facing away.

"I believe you have had a hard time during your captivity," the explainer said.

"I did not have a hard time," she replied.

"Now you have to choose your future very carefully," he continued. "One door leads to darkness, dictatorship and suffering; the other door leads to freedom."

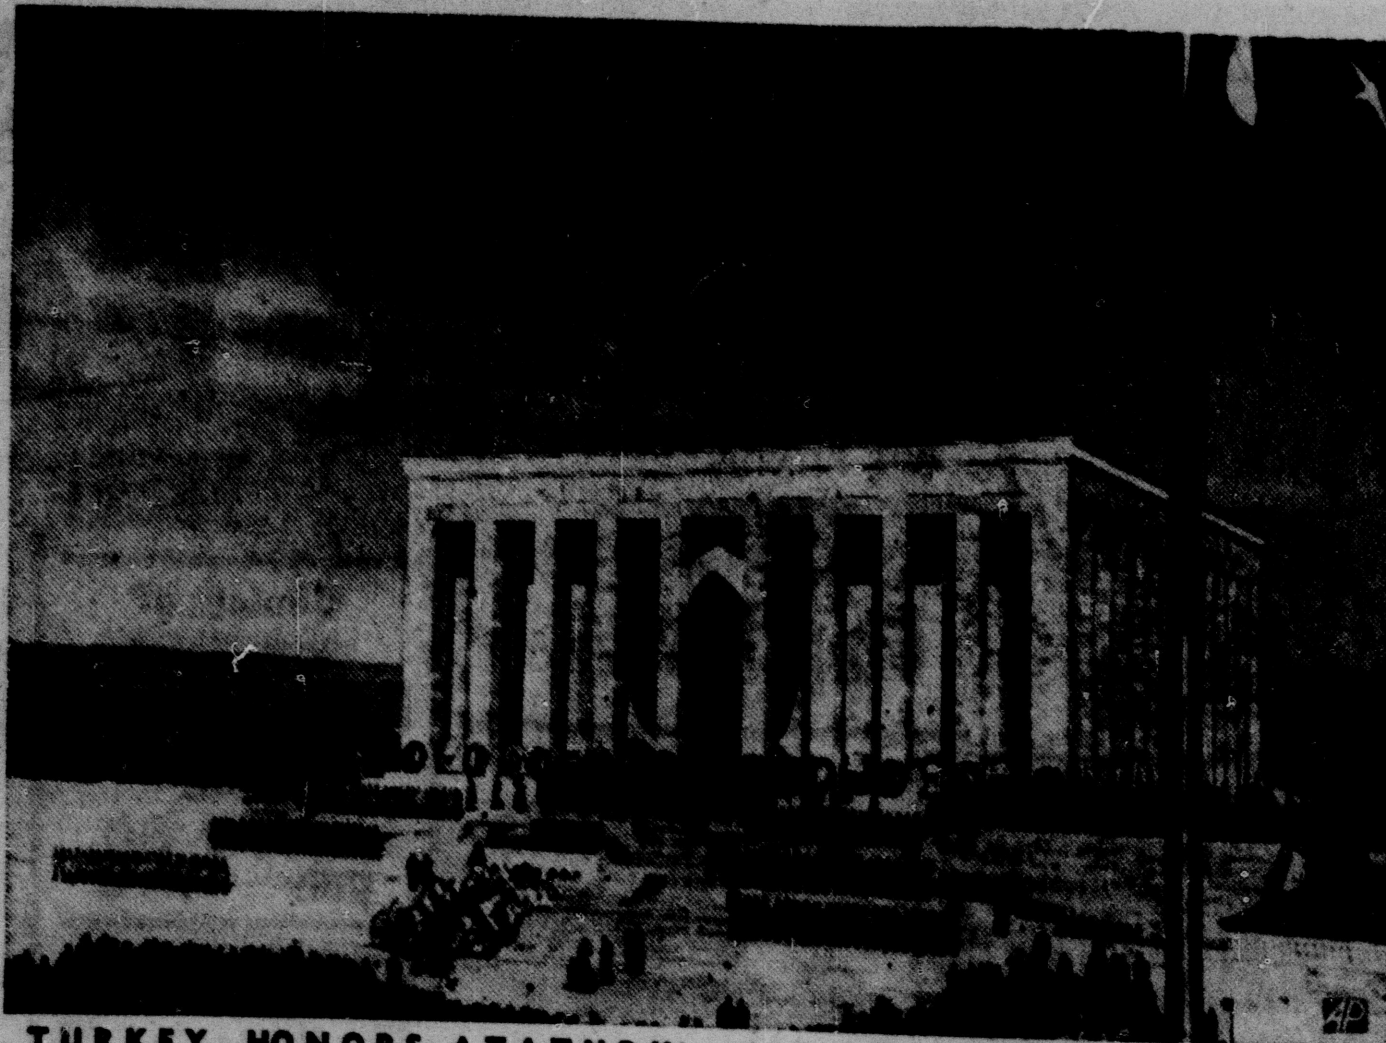

When he finished his plea, the explainer said emphatically: "We will keep this promise..."

He asked her if there were any questions.

"Yes," she said, "I have no family in either North or South Korea — that ends any discussion about my family."

"The Korean people should control their own country."

"I see no Koreans controlling the country — just American capitalists. And I see no freedom in South Korea... I want to fight to the

Optimists 'Held Up,' Then Get Travel Gavel for This Week

The "Travel Gavel" was delivered Tuesday noon to the Sedalia Optimist Club at Bothwell Hotel by a group of members of the East Kansas City Optimist Club, Keith Shimp, Herb Rope, Chet Lord and Bob McMillen.

There was a bit of confusion about the program. The Sedalia Club thought the visitors would present a program and the visitors didn't intend to at all, they were just bringing down the "Travel Gavel."

The meeting was opened by Harold Barrick, president, presiding, with invocation by the Rev. Robert C. Reinhart, C. P. S. Group singing was led by Charles Hanna with Mrs. Ed G. Ringen at the piano.

Then suddenly there was something that sounded like the Fourth of July and three of the visitors, shooting cap pistols, walked to the front of the room announcing that if everyone would just sit still no one would be hurt — this is a hold up.

Then the large wooden gavel, tied with white ribbons, was pulled out of a paper sack and handed to Harold Barrick.

The Kansas City men felt they must go back to a local drug store and explain why they bought the pistols. They had told the woman at the drug store that they were just going to use them a few minutes and when she asked what they intended to do with them, they told her they were going over and hold up the hotel.

The East Kansas City Optimist Club is a new club with 47 members.

Awards Presented Cooper County 4-H Leaders at Banquet

Cooper County Farm Bureau sponsored a 4-H Club leaders recognition banquet at Hotel Fredrick in Booneville last Monday evening with more than 135 attending.

Following the dinner, Mrs. Frank Kruger gave the welcome and the response was given by Mrs. Harlan Brownfield, Pilot Grove.

The speaker of the evening was Dr. C. E. Lemmon, pastor of the Christian Church of Columbia.

Following the address pins were awarded by the Booneville Chamber of Commerce to leaders according to length of service.

Those from Pilot Grove receiving recognition were: Anton Gerke, six years of service; Mrs. Harlan Brownfield and Mrs. Morris Settle, two years; Bernard Martin, first year pin.

Mrs. Harlan Brownfield is one of the three officers of the 1953-54 4-H Council.

death to drive out the last Americans.

Meanwhile, Red China's Peiping radio hinted that the 22 Americans may refuse to go home, saying that a committee has been "elected" to prepare for Christmas celebration.

Navy Personnel Not to Speak Any of Atoms

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy is ordering its personnel not even to repeat previous public statements on atomic matters unless they are "checked in advance" with the Atomic Energy Commission.

It is circulating an ironclad interpretation of the broadly worded request by the White House recently that atomic energy comments by government officials be checked first with the AEC. The Navy order forbids even the issuance of a denial of a published report unless prior approval is obtained.

The Navy circular states that all statements must be channeled through the assistant secretary of defense for legislative and public information affairs, Fred Seaton, for clearance with the "appropriate" agency of government (the AEC), and then specifies:

"This applies to the entire field of information with regard to nuclear weapons including capabilities, characteristics, numbers, employment, distribution and storage."

"It applies to discussion, confirmation, elaboration, amplification or refutation of statements in this field which have already been made public as well as statements containing material not hitherto published."

The Navy was the first of the armed forces to come up with its own interpretation of the atomic information order.

The Air Force has sent out reprints of the President's statement to its personnel. The Army has made no move as yet to issue an interpretation of the White House policy.

Because lumps of asphalt sometimes ooze from the bottom of the Dead Sea and are washed ashore, it is believed there may be rich oil deposits in the area.

Stopping Work Ties U Docks At N. Y. Port

NEW YORK (AP) — A large part of the docks in the Port of New York have been tied up by a work stoppage of longshoremen rebelling against a bistate waterfront rack-ets purge.

A federal probe of possible violation of a Taft-Hartley antistrike injunction has been launched.

The New York Shipping Assn., which represents 170 shipping and stevedoring companies, said last night the walkout had tied up "practically the entire port" by nightfall.

The New York-New Jersey Waterfront Commission, in charge of the dock cleanup program, said less than 35 per cent of the piers were affected by the stoppage.

Police were alerted for a possible general waterfront strike.

The refusal to work started early yesterday as the two-state employment supervision program became fully effective on the crime-ridden waterfront.

Many longshoremen, refused employment registration cards by the commission because of criminal backgrounds, set up picket lines outside the piers. Many registered longshoremen joined the picketing men in sympathy, and others with cards refused to cross the picket lines.

The shipping association charged the stoppage violated a Taft-Hartley law injunction, issued Oct. 5, which ended a strike on the waterfront. The federal court restrained any strike during an 80-day period expiring Christmas Eve.

William V. Bradley, president of the International Longshoremen's Assn., said:

"I have called no strike for any time. On the contrary, I am trying to get the men back to work. No order for a general strike has been issued and no order will be issued."

Bradley said the ILA wants the waterfront commission to grant temporary work permits to the outlawed longshoremen until they can get hearings. "That's what the issue is," he said. "If we can get temporary permits, we'll have something to encourage the men to go back to work," he declared.

The bistate commission — which was set up in the wake of New York State Crime Commission hearings which spotlighted dock crimes — has ordered about 255 longshoremen off the docks be-

Koreans Lose "Gifts"
CHILLICOTHE, Mo. (AP) — Hal Glick thought it was odd that the girl collecting clothes for the cleaners was wearing shorts. But when she knocked at the door he gave her his wife's good winter coat and two pairs of his trousers. Mrs. Glick solved the mystery. She rescued the clothing from the church basement where girls were collecting "Clothes for Korea." Not "clothes for the cleaner."

EXCLUSIVE SPIRATOR ACTION

washes all fabrics
Super-clean, Super-safe!

Here's the greatest "proof by test" demonstration of cleaner clothes you ever saw! See how the patented, curved vanes of the Easy Spiralator create an unbelievably thorough "roll-over" washing action. All the clothes are washed in all parts of the tub. No "so-so" washing at top, overscrubbing at bottom. Yet, it's extra gentle on all those modern "miracle" fabrics and finest woolen blankets. You'll do the whole week's wash better, easier in this new Easy Automatic!

EXTRA-THOROUGH POWER-RINSE

Clothes get deep, clean rinsing too! After a penetrating Spray Rinse, the same Spiralator action that washes clothes cleaner, combines with a Deep Overflow Rinse to thoroughly loosen then flush suds and soil up and over the tub ... never through the clothes!

MASTER MIND DIAL

TWO COMPLETELY AUTOMATIC WASHING CYCLES

Regular Fabrics Cycle: For the biggest part of your weekly wash. Full flexibility — skip or repeat, lengthen or shorten any part of the cycle.

Fine Fabrics Cycle: There's nothing like it in any completely automatic washer. Features a shorter wash, rinse and damp-dry period for those delicate fabrics. Also completely automatic and fully flexible.

ST. LOUIS (U.P.)—Blood-thinning drugs might have saved 640,000 Americans who died of heart attacks in the last 10 years—a life every eight minutes—a physician said today.

The drugs, anticoagulants, help dissolve or prevent blood clots which block the main artery to the heart. Dicoumarol and heparin are main examples.

How they have proved their dramatic lifesaving ability was described today to the American Medical Assn. by Dr. E. Sterling Nichol of Miami, Fla.

In 10 years, probably eight million Americans have been stricken with these heart attacks, he said. "If anticoagulants had been used in all cases, the death rate would have been reduced from 24 to 16 per cent, which means 640,000 lives might have been saved. Actually, less than one fifth of the cases were treated, but even so at least 100,000 probably have been saved."

The drugs can work if given before, or even after some heart attacks, Dr. Nichol said. The heart attacks often give warning signals, hours or even weeks before the damaging blockade of the heart. Certain pains are a main warning signal.

The drugs must be used carefully, to prevent hemorrhage from too-thin blood, Dr. Nichol cautioned. They and other drugs now are being studied also in thousands of patients as a means of preventing later heart attacks.

In another significant report, Dr. David B. Morgan of Kansas City said certain types of chronic, itchy skin eruptions may often be caused by not eating enough proteins, such as meat, eggs and fish. Bed sores, slow healing of surgical wounds, and some serious skin diseases also can often be benefited by eating more protein, he added.

Testimony Goes Into Second Day In Holdup Trial

ST. LOUIS (U.P.)—Testimony entered the second day today in the trial of William F. Scholl on first degree robbery charges in the $141,000 attempted holdup of a St. Louis bank last spring.

Scholl, a 28-year-old Chicagoan, was wounded and captured when scores of police broke up the daylight raid on the Southwest Bank last April 24.

Six witnesses, including Dillon J. Ross, bank president, and three bank employees took the stand yesterday. More than 60 persons are listed as prospective witnesses.

Scholl, who was identified from the stand yesterday by Mrs. Rosemary Perick, bank receptionist, as one of the four bandits who attempted the holdup, is specifically charged with taking $18,000 from one of the tellers.

No specific penalty was asked by Assistant Circuit Attorney Raymond Bruntrager in his opening statement, but the state indicated previously the death penalty will be asked against Scholl. In Missouri, first degree robbery is punishable by a sentence of from five years imprisonment to death.

One of the bandits killed himself during a gun battle with police. Another was fatally wounded. Glenn Chernick of Chicago, arrested by police as the driver of the getaway cab, is awaiting trial on robbery charges.

State Prison Receives 250 Pounds of Mail For Kidnap-Killers

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (U.P.)—Missouri State Penitentiary officials say 250 pounds of letters and telegrams have been sent to Carl Austin Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, the kidnap-killers of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease. But none of it has been delivered—at the kidnapers' request. They said they didn't care to see any of the mail.

Prison officials said most of the letters checked appeared to come from cranks and persons who wanted to thrust their religious views on the pair who will die in the state gas chamber Dec. 18.

Man Is Fatally Hurt When Struck by Bus

ST. LOUIS (U.P.)—A man identified by police as Emil Brinkman of Gerald, Mo., was struck by a bus and fatally injured last night on Washington Avenue near 19th st. The driver, Webster Clark of 16548 Hobday, suburban Overland, told police Brinkman stepped from the curb into the path of the bus.

AFL Engineers Picket Electric Plant In St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (U.P.)—The AFL Technical Engineers today began picketing the Wagner Electric Co. plants in the St. Louis area, but a spokesman for the firm said production continued at a normal pace.

A high percentage of more than 8,000 workers employed by the company are members of CIO unions and both the company and the AFL union said the CIO employees were crossing the AFL picket lines.

The AFL union represents about 100 Wagner draftsmen and tool designers. Negotiations on renewal of a contract have been in progress since August, with the union asking a 10 per cent wage increase. President Maurice R. Wheeler of the union's local 23 said. Under the old contract the Technical Engineers received an average basic wage of $80 a week.

Wheeler denied a statement by the company spokesman that members of all other unions at

Wagner Electric were ignoring the picket lines which were set up at 6:30 a. m.

Wheeler said the AFL Machinists and members of certain AFL craft unions were refusing to cross the lines.

More than 6,000 of the firm's workers are employed at its main plant at 6400 Plymouth Ave., the remainder at a sub plant in nearby Edwardsville, Ill., and at warehouses and other installations in this area.

The company manufactures electrical transformers, motors, hydraulic brakes and similar products.

Two Largest Can Makers Strikebound

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A strike by the CIO United Steelworkers shut down the nation's two largest can manufacturers today.

The big union ordered the walk-out last night against the American Can Co. and the Continental Can Co. after a deadlock in negotiations for new contracts. American Can and Continental employ 33,000 SUW members in 68 plants in 30 states and five plants in Canada. Of These, American operates 36 in 16 states and 1 in Canada employing about 20,000 workers. Some 13,000 other union members work in 32 plants of Continental in 14 states and 4 in Canada.

The two companies employ more than 60,000 persons in all. About half of these are not affected since they are represented by other unions.

Closing of the plants will hit the citrus industry hard because it depends on tin cans to market its products. The strike also will affect the steel industry, which supplies most of the metal for cans.

Representatives of both companies met separately with union bargaining teams yesterday and last night in a last-ditch effort to avert the walkout.

Federal mediators stood by until the final minutes waiting for a break—but none came.

Al Whitehouse, head of the USW committee negotiating with American Can, said the company "gave every evidence of bad faith and no intention to bargain."

A spokesman for Continental Can said the strike was "an attempt to enforce absurd" union demands.

Talks got under way in New York about five weeks ago and switched to Pittsburgh last week.

The union seeks a 12-cent hourly wage increase and several fringe improvements for members who now average $1.80 an hour in the United States and $1.50 in Canada.

Both companies made the same offer—a 10½-cent hourly wage package boost. Union negotiators rejected it. Eight and a half cents of the proposed boost was to be a straight raise. The remaining 2 cents was offered for improved pension and vacation benefits and adjustment of area pay differentials.

E. T. Klassen, chairman of the American Can group, said:

"The strike announcement is an attempt to enforce absurd economic demands and other proposals, acceptance of which by the company would be tantamount to surrendering its right to manage the business."

Klassen said the union began its bargaining with demands which would have amounted to a package increase of 50 cents an hour and gradually lowered them to what the company estimated to be about 26 cents an hour. At the final session, he said, the union reinstated all its original demands. He added:

"The union announced that all tentative agreements were withdrawn; that the union and the company were 15 cents apart on money items and there were some 65 unresolved issues."

Warren Lacke, head of the Continental negotiating team, said:

"We considered our offer a fair one and regret that the union has seen fit to reject it and call a strike."

The union had no comment on either statement.

David J. McDonald, USW president, sent telegrams to union officials at plants of the companies stating:

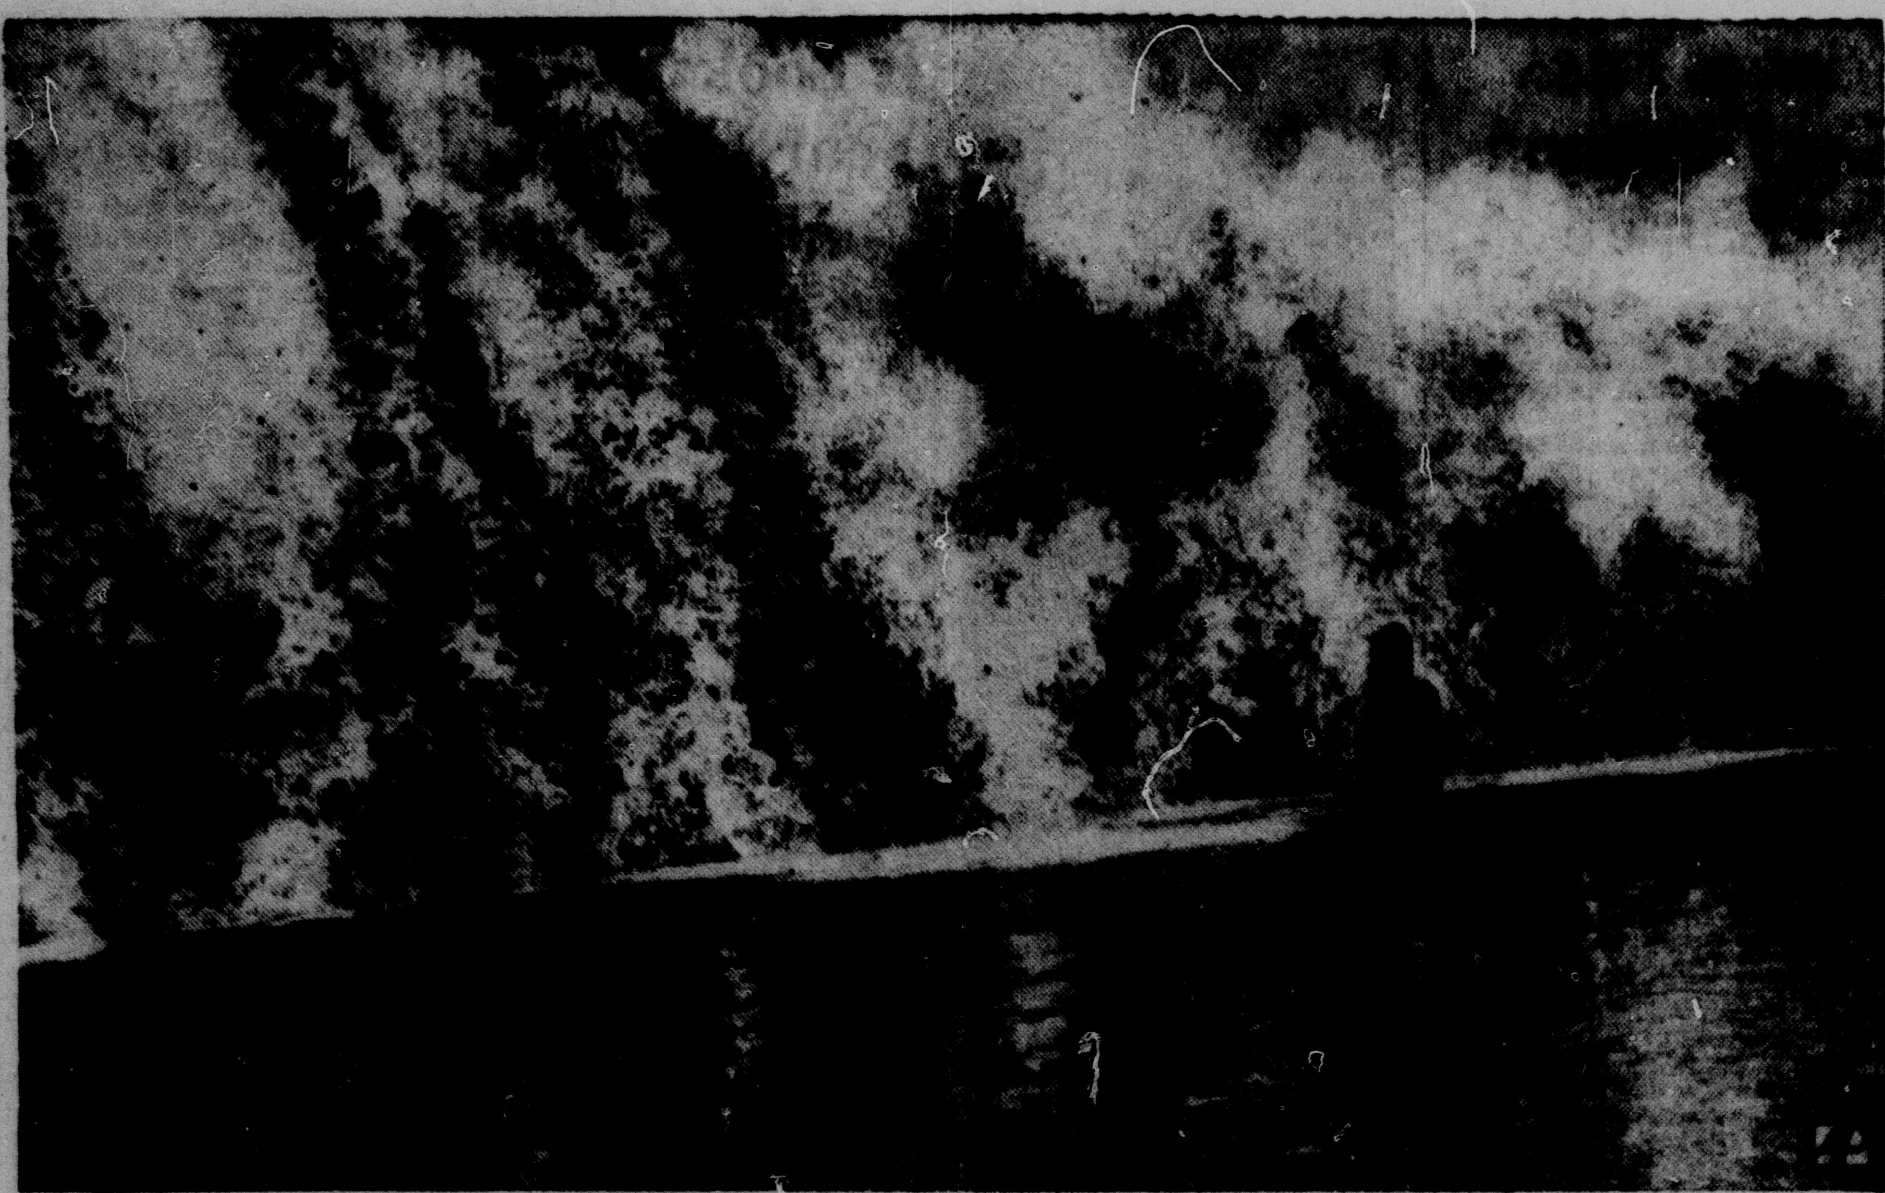

"Your contract expired at midnight Dec. 1, 1953. No satisfactory agreement has been reached. All work should cease as of 12:01 a. m., Dec. 2, 1953, until further notice."

Among the first plants to close were Continental Can operations at Syracuse, N. Y., where approximately 1,000 employees stopped work one minute after midnight, and Harvey, La., where about 500 walked out.

Meanwhile, Federal Mediators William Rose and George Woomer said they will continue efforts to bring the union and companies together. No new negotiations are scheduled.

American Can Co. plants with USW contracts are located at Brooklyn, N. Y.; Baltimore, New York, N. J.; Tampa, Fla.; Houston, Tex.; Milwaukee; Birmingham, Ala.; Terre Haute, Austin and Indianapolis, Ind.; Cincinnati; St. Paul, Minn.; St. Louis; Fort Smith, Ark.; Ogden, Utah; Englewood, Maywood and Joliet, Ill.; Portland, Ore.; San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles, San Diego, Sacramento, San Jose, Monterey, Wilmington and Stockton, Calif.; and Vancouver, B. C.

Continental Can Co. plants struck are at Syracuse; Newark, Patterson and Passaic, N. J.; Birmingham, Ala.; Gary and Elwood, Ind.; Chicago; Baltimore; Memphis; Harvey, La.; Houston; Pittsburgh; Milwaukee; St. Louis; Auburn and Tampa, Fla.; Los Angeles, Terminal Island and Sacramento, Calif.; and four in Canada.

Agents Find Four Bars Of Gold, But Nobody Admits He Lost Them

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Police and U. S. Treasury agents have recovered four gleaming bars of gold bullion, but nobody seems to want to admit he lost them.

"We've got the gold but that's about all," said Paul Hart, agent in charge of the U. S. Secret Service here. The bullion was valued at $2,000.

The gold first was reported stolen from a Denver defense plant, but that theory fizzled. Officers said the bars were being peddled on the black market.

"We figure there is more to this gold business than we have been able to uncover," they said. "However, we were unable to find the owner so we won't be able to hold two suspects any longer."

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Two Dallas detectives sheepishly admitted they failed to make a complete investigation.

That was just the half of it, they admitted yesterday.

Tigers Beat Marshall Owls In Overtime

The Smith-Cotton High School Tigers eked out a victory over the Marshall High School Owls 64-62 in an overtime period on the Tigers' court Tuesday night. This was not a CEMO Conference game.

The Tigers had a first quarter lead of 15-13 but dropped it to Marshall in the second when the Owls tallied 19 to 14 points for a halftime lead of 31-29. In the third period the Tigers jerked it out of the fire and scored 14 to the Owls eight for a lead of 43-39.

It was an exciting fourth stanza with the Tigers beating ahead by a nine point lead of 50-41 up to the last five minutes of play and then the Owls broke loose to score 18 points while the Tigers picked up nine and knotted the game and the horn sounded ended the game 59-59.

In the overtime period fouls won for the Tigers. Cartee of the Owls hit the basket for the first score of two points, then a foul was made on Lanny Benson, who made one of the two shots. Abney of Owls was fouled and he picked one point on two shots. Bobby Case fouled and he was able to pick up one point out of two shots. Benson was fouled and he hit the loop on both free throws to give the Tigers a 63-62 lead. Case fouled again picked up another point of two shots after which the clock ran but six seconds and ended the tilt.

Ray Homan fired in nine baskets and five free throws for 23 points and was tied for high honors by Bob Hinton of the Owls who duplicated Homan, in goals and free tosses. Lanny Benson tallied three and seven for total 13 while in the Owls scoring Cartee and Vasilopoulos scored 10 points, Cartee five goals and his teammate four goals and two free throws.

The Tigers "B" team defeated the "B" Owls 35-31. Walt Kennon was high pointer with three goals and seven free throws for a total 13 while Abney with three and three was high for Marshall with 11 points.

The Freshmen teams saw the Tigers winning 31 to 25, Spraggins of the Junior Tigers fired in eight field goals for 16 points while Shepard was high for the Junior Owls with 12 points.

Parker Bennett Gets MIAA Football Award

POPLAR BLUFF — The 1953 football sportsmanship award of the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic association was presented to Parker Bennett of Poplar Bluff at a football dinner last night.

Bennett was an all-conference guard with the Rolla Miners. A wrist watch was presented to him by John Waldorf, MIAA commissioner.

Thirty-five men from the six conference schools got votes, with the top three close together. Bennett was one vote ahead of Robert Jennings, Springfield, and Jennings led Leroy Glone of Warrensburg by one vote.

The ballots were cast by press and radio men, athletic department officials, and game officials.

Lunsford and Kline Top Valley Gainers, Get All-Star Berths

ST. LOUIS — A bulldozing sophomore and a whip armed senior were the main offensive threats in Missouri Valley Conference football this season.

The first year man was fullback Earl Lunsford of Oklahoma A&M, the workhorse of the Valley who carried 147 times and rushed for 748 yards. That was the best ground work in the conference and made Lunsford, selected on the Associated Press Valley All-Star team, the key man in the Aggies' championship drive.

Quarterback Dave Kline of Detroit was the passing personality of the conference and helped push the Titans into a tie with A&M. He completed more passes (54), attempted more (141) and gained more yards (777) than any other passer in the league.

Wichita quarterback Bill Pace, a second team selection behind Kline on the all-star team, had the best completion record, hitting 358 per cent of his 52 shots while netting 272 yards.

Halfback Bill Bredde of Oklahoma A&M was the runner up to Lunsford in rushing offense, netting 645 yards on 114 rushes.

Sophomore halfback Don Hargrove of Houston, with one game remaining, is the leader in rushing averages. He averaged 64 yards a rush in 57 carries and netted 365 yards. Halfback Dorsey Gibson of A&M, who joined teammates Bredde and Lunsford on the all-star eleven, finished with a 6.2 yard average on 58 rushes and a 361-yard net.

Detroit halfback Lee Riley, with 21 catches for 374 yards and three touchdowns, was the leading passer receiver. Tom Miner of Tulsa, an all-star end, was No. 2 with 15 catches.

Tulsa's Bill Walker was the leading punter, based on 20 or more punts, with a 39.3 average on 25 punts. Houston's Jack Patterson averaged 39.2 on 21 punts. Halfback Bob Burgett of Detroit won the scoring title with 12 touchdowns and 72 points. Riley was second with nine touchdowns for 54 points.

Aussies Whip Americans Again On Tennis Court

MELBOURNE, Australia — In just one of a series of stunning blows to America's Davis Cup hopes, the United States top doubles team of Tony Trabert and Vic Seixas went down before Australia's second best today in the semifinals of the Victorian Championships.

Playing poorly and fuming over foulball calls, the Americans bowed to Rex Hartwig and Mervyn Rose 6-8, 6-4, 6-2, 5-7, 6-2. Seixas lost his temper in the third set after he was penalized the third time for footfaulting. He bickered with Special Footfault Judge George Valentine. He once knocked a ball high in the air in disgust and frittered away the eighth and deciding game of the set by trying to serve at least a foot behind the service line.

Later he and Trabert, who was penalized once for footfaulting, stormed into the dressing room protesting loudly to Valentine.

Earlier, Australia's 19-year-old court phenoms, Ken Rosewall and Lewis Hoad, advanced to the final by defeating their countrymen, Clive Wilderspin and Neale Fraser 6-4, 1-6, 6-4, 6-3. These are the boys who will carry Australia's banner in the cup matches here at Kooroyang and on this warm day the Americans need a lot of work and improvement to match them.

America Begins Picking Olympic Stars for '56

WASHINGTON — Organizational problems out of the way, U. S. Olympic officials buckled down today to the task of developing athletes who can bring home gold medals.

The U. S. Olympic Assn., yesterday wound up a two-day get-together which followed a four-day convention of the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU).

These were the major developments at the two meetings:

1. Committees were selected to direct activities in a score of sports events at the 1956 Pan American games at Mexico City and the 1956 Olympics at Melbourne, Australia, and Cortina d'Ampezzo, Italy.

2. Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson, Big Ten commissioner, replaced Avery Brundage as president of the U. S. Olympic Assn. Brundage is now president of the International Olympic Committee.

3. Louis G. Wilke, well-known basketball coach from Bartlesville, Okla., became president of the AAU, succeeding Douglas F. Roby of Detroit.

4. The AAU changed its rule on professionalism, mostly to benefit industrial athletic programs. Professionals may regain amateur status after a five-year waiting period, but not in the sport in which they were paid money.

5. Plans were laid for the biggest AAU track and field championships in history, to be held in St. Louis next summer in honor of the 50th anniversary of the 1904 Olympics held in the Missouri city.

Minors Face Big Dilemma Over Strife

ATLANTA, Ga. — The minor leagues, trying desperately to save themselves from financial ruin, today faced the worst dilemma in their 32-year history.

As the convention moved into its third day, the minors found themselves torn with inner strife, rebellion, charges of pirating and open dissension in the ranks. There also remained that ever-present ogre, major league radio and television invasions of their territory.

Unable to get help from the majors and apparently unable to help themselves, the little fellows are being ground deeper and deeper into the financial swamp.

In an unprecedented action, Frank Shaughnessy, the highly respected president of the International League, was forced to defend himself against the charge that he was trying to steal Piedmont League territory (Richmond, Va.) as a new strut for his own weakened loop.

Shaughnessy faced an accusing Frank Summers, president of the Piedmont League, before minor league czar George M. Trautman. Summers charged that Shaughnessy, in an attempt to replace the faltering Springfield, Mass., franchise, has tried to woo Richmond into the triple A international, thereby causing untold damage to the class B Piedmont. Shaughnessy denied the charge, saying he simply is trying to affect the salvation of his own league.

After hearing both sides, Trautman said he felt no real wrong had been done and was confident that things can be worked out.

Owner Eddie Moores of the Richmond club, however, announced after the meetings that he had rejected a $200,000 offer for his franchise and real estate property. The offer was made by Harry Seibold, Richmond industrialist, who had intended to move the club into the international.

Springfield, a Chicago cub farm club, is demanding $25,000 to relinquish its franchise. It has until Dec. 12 to make up its mind whether it desires to continue in the league.

The Pacific Coast League met last night to decide the validity of ownership of the San Francisco club. After purchasing the Seals from Paul Pagan, the PCL resolved to buy the club from a former employee of the club. The selling price was $100,000, of which Miller paid $10,000. President Clarence Rowland of the PCL emerged from the meeting with the announcement that Miller would be given more time to pay the balance. It was rumored in other circles, however, that control of the club might go to someone else.

Trouble also was brewing in the Southwest, where Dick Burnett, multimillionaire oilman who owns Dallas, threatened to upset the basic structure of the minor leagues. Burnett demanded that the minors receive some protection against major league radio and TV. He also advocated substituting the majority vote for the three-quarter needed now to adopt new legislation.

While the minors were trying to figure out methods of fighting the menace of major league TV and radio in their territories, the big leaguers were formulating a game of the week television deal that figures to cripple the already meager drawing power of the minors.

The game of the week idea, advanced by Commissioner Ford Frick, is expected to bring a revenue of some two million dollars for the 1954 season, the program consisting of 26 Saturday telecasts of major league games throughout the country. The money would be divided on a 50-50 basis between the majors and minors.

Houstonia And Sacred Heart Divide Games

In a "B" team basketball game played in the Sacred Heart gymnasium Tuesday evening, the youthful Gremlins of Sacred Heart met defeat by losing to Houstonia, 36-30. Racunas and Riatti shared the scoring honors for Sacred Heart with eight points each, while Carver was Houstonia's scoring rage with 12 points. In the volleyball contest, Sacred Heart came out victorious, 20-15. Westhusing was the leading scorer for SHHS with 12 points and Baker took the honors for Houstonia with seven.

Johnny Lattner Gets Awards But He Talks About the Team

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — If Johnny Lattner gets on his feet to address his hosts at the Maxwell and Heisman awards dinners those present may witness a neat bit of sidestepping.

Notre Dame's brilliant 20-year-old halfback, voted both awards yesterday, is just hard to corner in conversation as he is on the football field.

That's especially true when the subject is Johnny Lattner.

Asked by a reporter for his reaction to being chosen for college football's top two individual honors, the boyish All America hesitated, then said it was "sure a thrill."

However, he hastened to turn the talk to the Irish team. Said John:

"I'm sorry the team missed getting the top ranking in the national poll. We were all doing our best Saturday against Southern California, shooting for it. I seem to be getting all the honors and the team missed the big one."

Lattner had perhaps his finest day of the season, scoring four touchdowns and running 157 yards from scrimmage as the Irish beat USC 48-14.

How about that performance?

"Well, we were all trying hard. That Neil Worden is great. (Fullback Worden averaged nearly 10 yards in 15 smashes against USC). You know, he practically carried the whole offense in our opening

Graham, Perry Appear Certain NFL Champions

PHILADELPHIA — Unless Otto Graham and Joe Perry go complete to pieces within the next two weeks they'll be the new passing and ground gaining champions of the National Football League.

Graham, the accurate Cleveland aerial artist, is far out in front as the NFL's forward passing leader while Perry, the 220-pound San Francisco fullback, has a comfortable lead in the rushing department.

Official statistics released today by the league give the veteran Graham an average gain of 10.28 yards per pass attempt. That's more than two yards a try better than his nearest competitors, Bobby Thomson of Philadelphia has 8.18 and Norm Van Brocklin of Los Angeles is third with 8.13.

Van Brocklin won the passing title last year with an 8.47 average. Perry, who played only junior college football before joining the 49ers five years ago, rolled up 82 yards against Baltimore Sunday to push his rushing total to 872 yards. That leaves him 130 yards ahead of Deacon Dan Towler of the Rams who won the title with 894 last year.

Perry has an average of 5.3 yards per carry compared to Towler's slightly better average of 5.7. Towler's teammate, Volney Quinlan, is third with a total of 604.

On the other end of the passing statistics, Pittsburgh's Elbie Nickel is within three yards of catching Pete Pihos of Philadelphia for the pass receiving leadership. Pihos has caught 56 for 931 yards to 53 for 647 for Nickel.

Four MU Football Players Will Play In Post-Season Games

COLUMBIA — Four Missouri football players will play in post-season games, Don Faurot, Tiger coach, announced yesterday.

Halfback Ed Merrifield and end John Wilson (c) will play for the South in the North-South game at Miami, Fla., Dec. 25.

Ted Follin, guard, and Loyd Brown, center, will join the Blue squad in the Blue-Gray game at Montgomery, Ala.

Faurot, a member of the South coaching staff, said Missouri's halfback Bob Schoonmaker also was invited by the South but is trying out for the Tiger basketball squad instead.

It Looks Like Year of 100 Points a Game

NEW YORK — Any college with a basketball scoreboard that won't register over 100 points better give up the game this season.

Returns from the first big college basketball night of the winter show more than a dozen scores in the three-figure category with anything under 80 almost certain to belong to a losing club.

Six of last season's top teams saw action last night and all triumphed.

Not all of the big clubs were as successful, however. The California Bears, supposedly the best club on the Pacific Coast, were thumped 51-33 by San Francisco in one of the lowest scoring games of the night. Texas A&M of the Southwest Conference was jolted 88-68 by Lamar Tech of Beaumont, and Clemson of the Atlantic Coast Conference bowed before the skill of little Presbyterian 92-61.

North Carolina State, perennial Southern powerhouse, hit the century mark against Furman, winning 100-74 although Frank Selvy scored 31 points for the losers. Selvy averaged 29.9 points a game in leading the nation's scorers in the 1952-53 season. State was ranked 18th in last spring's final Associated Press poll.

St. John's of Brooklyn, runner-up in the 1953 National Invitation Tournament, was pushed by Roanoke College before winning 70-56.

Oklahoma A&M, No. 8 a season ago behind St. John's, showed tremendous offensive power in whipping Hardin-Simmons 85-40. But the Aggies also had their famous defense working, allowing the Texans only six field goals, five of them in the first half.

Two Big Ten clubs opened their season, Illinois, No. 11, warmed up against Ohio University 85-54, while improving Wisconsin, tabbed as a first-division contender, defeated Butler 70-54.

Wake Forest, No. 15, coasted against Virginia Tech 82-55, and DePaul, No. 19, beat Illinois Wesleyan 73-63.

In the high-scoring department, Tennessee swamped Wofford 107-63 and Fordham, tabbed as one of the best in New York, overpowered Adelphi 105-56. Ed Conlin scored 42 points for Fordham, tops for the night among the major schools.

Howard Hobson of Yale, one of the nation's best known coaches, watched his son score 17 points in leading the Elis to an 81-64 victory over Springfield College.

In the southwest, Southern Methodist beat Northwestern Louisiana 90-71; conference champion Texas Christian outclassed Austin College 73-39. Baylor defeated North Texas State 70-54, and West Texas State whipped Arizona State of Flagstaff 71-53.

Out West, Colorado State defeated Denver 73-56. Oregon beat Portland 79-72, and Southern California trimmed San Diego State 82-66.

St. Louis Cardinals Still Want Pitcher

ATLANTA, Ga. — The St. Louis Cardinals still want a pitcher. Cardinal Manager Eddie Stanky has been in a bargaining huddle with the Cincinnati Reds during the player draft meetings here this week, but after several hours of talk yesterday he said:

"We're still after what we came for—a pitcher."

Stanky declined to disclose just who he wanted off the Redlegs staff, but the best bet is Joe Nuxhall, a 25-year-old southpaw.

Previously the Cardinals tried to pry loose either Lew Nurdette or Bob Buhl, both right-handers, from the Milwaukee Braves. Stanky also conversed this week with Branch Rickey, executive head of the Pittsburgh Pirates, in another effort to obtain some pitching help.

Tom Oliver Is First Coach Named to New Staff of Jimmy Dykes

ATLANTA — Tom Oliver, a coach with the Philadelphia A's for the past three seasons, today was named a coach with Baltimore under new Manager Jimmy Dykes. He is the first coach named to Dykes' staff.

Oliver, 50, a former Boston Red Sox outfielder, managed for seven years in the minors before turning to coaching. He served with the A's from 1951 through 1953. He was cut loose at Philadelphia when Eddie Joost succeeded Dykes.

Losing No. 1 Spot Stirs Up Irish for SMU

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — There is bound to be some disappointment at Notre Dame in finishing No. 2 behind Maryland in the 1953 national football ranking, and this should help stoke up the Irish against Southern Methodist Saturday.

SMU is the last opponent on Notre Dame's so-called 10-game suicide schedule and victory would mean Coach Frank Leahy's first undefeated season since 1949.

Apparently, a 14-1 tie with Iowa was the influencing factor as voters in the Associated Press' final poll mustered enough strength to give Maryland the mythical national title by a margin of 3.365 to 3.149 points this week.

Maryland was unbeaten and untied. But many midwestern experts think the Terps' schedule cannot compare with that of the Irish who were called on to meet Oklahoma, Purdue, Pitt, Georgia Tech, Navy, Penn, North Carolina, Iowa, Southern California and now SMU.

The Irish failed to regain the No. 1 rating although crushing Southern California Saturday 48-14 for their highest score since lacing Indiana 48-6 in the 1951 opener.

They are heavily favored to whip SMU in the nationally-televised finale.

The Irish never have beaten the Mustangs by more than seven points in the intermission series. They won 20-14 in 1950, 20-19 in 1951, 27-20 in 1949 and lost 27-20 to SMU and the rapid-fire passer, Fred Benner, at South Bend in 1951.

Johnny Lattner, announced yesterday as the 1953 Heisman trophy and Maxwell award winner, and fullback Neil Worden are among six senior regulars completing their collegiate careers against the Mustangs.

Notre Dame never needs a reason for playing its best football on any given Saturday, but this week the incentive is built high. It seems always to reach a peak against an opponent who has beaten the Irish in the past.

Committee Reports 10 Football Deaths During 1953 Season

LOS ANGELES — Ten football fatalities—two in college, two in athletic club levels, five in high school and one in sandlot play—have been reported this year to the Football Fatality Committee of the American Coaches Assn.

The deaths were reported in statistics through Nov. 25, and while six deaths—in five high school, one sandlot—were reported for the same period in 1952, the totals are well below the average during the 20 years the committee has been at work.

So said Dr. Floyd R. Eastwood, committee chairman, in a preliminary report being compiled today. Over the 20-year span, football deaths averaged 17.9 per year, Dr. Eastwood said. He said the difference between 1952 and 1953 does not indicate any particular trend.

Lincoln U. Star On Little All-American

NEW YORK — The Associated Press, Little All-American football team of 1953, honors states, giving recognition to athletes, who helped their teams win conference or regional championships, aided in winning bowl bids and, in one case, set national records.

It is doubtful if ever in the past the colleges—termed minor by the National Collegiate Athletic Association service bureau, in contrast to the huge brain factories—have been represented by such a stalwart and able team.

For instance, the backfield lists Leo Lewis of Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Mo., Lewis, a junior, already has scored 53 touchdowns in three seasons to establish a record no other player can match. He was the nation's ace point-getter this year with 132 points.

In the backfield with him is Hugh Laurin Pepper, the running ace of the Mississippi Southern team which opened the season by defeating Alabama and closed it by blanking Georgia. At quarterback is Pence Dacus of Southwest Texas State, by statistics the nation's best passer, and Richard Wolt, whose Arkansas State team of Jonesboro again is in a bowl game.

To make things easy for this talented array of ball carriers are seven linemen who are stars in their own rights.

Right in the middle of things is Stan Sheriff of California Poly. The club is the only undefeated team in California and scored 400 points while holding its nine victims to 63. Sheriff, whose college career was interrupted, already has been drafted by the Detroit Lions.

At one of the tackles is Robert Lade of Peru, Neb., Teachers. He is a repeater from the 1952 team and again helped the Nebraskans to an unbeaten year. At the other pole is Norman Hayes of the College of Idaho, who also defeated all rivals and then won a spot in the Refrigerator Bowl.

Bruno Ashley of East Texas State, a team which equaled Maryland's mighty record of 10 successive victories through the season, is stationed at one guard and Robert Adams of Shippensburg, Pa., Teachers at the other. Shippensburg also stormed through its schedule without a setback.

For the past several years St. Olaf College of Minnesota has been the scourge of its class. This year it whipped eight opponents in succession and registered 351 points to 38. A part of the reason for its success was the play of John Gustafson at end, a position he holds on the national outfit. At the other everything star of the East Tennessee State aggregation which won the Burley Bowl laurels on Thanksgiving Day.

Among those on the Little All-America honorable mention list are End Richard Shea of Missouri Valley College; tackles William Danenhauer, College of Emporia; Kenneth Dement, Southeast Missouri State; George Keim, McPherson and James Petroff, Arkansas State; centers Don Dempsey, Arkansas Tech and Richard Rzeszut, St. Benedict's; backs William Baker, Washburn, Lemuel Harkey, College of Emporia and Gene Smith, McPherson.

Valley Stars: Heavy Line, Stellar Backs

ST. LOUIS (U-A) Heavy, rugged line and a well-balanced attacking backfield made the 1933 Missouri Valley Conference football All-Star team announced today by the Associated Press.

The leading offensive backs in the five-team conference were selected by sportswriters and sportscasters in the wide Valley area, while the line, a veteran group with two juniors, averages 207 pounds a man.

Cochampion Oklahoma A&M dominated the first team selections with five players. Detroit, sharing the crown with the Aggies, and Houston received two places on the team.

Wichita and Tulsa landed one player each to give the team a representative from each school in the conference.

The first team lineup: Ends—Tom Miner, Tulsa, and Bob Larue, Oklahoma A&M. Tackles—Buddy Gillioz, Houston, and Dale Meiner, Oklahoma A&M. Guards—Denny McCotter, Detroit, and Bob Chuoke, Houston. Centers—Ron Summers, Wichita. Backs—Dave Kline, Detroit, and Bill Bredder, Dorsey Gibson and Earl Lunsford, all of Oklahoma A&M.

Miner, Gillioz and McCotter were the only unanimous choices, but only two positions on the squad called for a real fight in the voting.

Halfback Dorsey Gibson of the Aggies barely nudged Detroit halfback Lee Riley for a first team berth by one vote. And Houston's Bob Chuoke won by one vote over Detroit's Joe Belluso at guard.

The Aggie's Bob Larue, a 185-pound, 6-foot-1 flanker, and Dale Miner, Gillioz and McCotter were the only unanimous choices, but only two positions on the squad called for a real fight in the voting.

Nelson Divides Victories With Prairie Home

The Nelson varsity dropped its game Tuesday night to Prairie Home, 42-80, while their companion girls team came through to divide the honors and defeated the Prairie Home girls, 27 to 24, in a thriller. This was a non-conference game.

The Nelson girls trailed Prairie Home in the first quarter 5-6, but started their lead in the second by scoring 9 to 3 points for a half-time lead of 14-11. In the third quarter the Nelson girls added four points and their opponents collected four, and in the fourth quarter Nelson added 9 as did Prairie Home to end the contest with a three-point lead picked up in the first half.

Allison Waller tallied 20 of Nelson's 27 points while Shirley Potter shot 21 of the Prairie Home 24 points.

In the boys' game Prairie Home had it all the way, jumping into a first quarter lead and holding on through the contest. The score by quarters was 13-9; 27-19 at the halftime; 50-33 in the third quarter and game time 60-42.

McClanahan of Prairie Home led the scoring for his team with nine goals and one free throw for 19 points while in the Nelson camp Wales scored five goals and seven free throws for a total 17 points.

Friday night Nelson's two teams will play Mayview in a La-Saline Conference game.

Soldier Uses Three-day Pass In Boxing Bid

DETROIT (U-A) Soldier Norman Hayes of Boston, who hasn't fought in six months, will try to make the most of a three-day pass to night when he meets Utah's Garth Panter in Olympia Stadium.

This 10-round clash of hopeful middleweights will be televised from coast-to-coast. It starts at 10 p.m., EST.

Pfc. Hayes, 22, hasn't fought for pay since May, when he turned in a disappointing losing performance against Jesse Turner in St. Louis. Hayes says he has kept in shape by working out in camp and in nearby Washington, D. C.

Contrarily, Panter, 23, a Salt Lake City iron worker, has been averaging a fight every three weeks—an ambitious schedule for any fighter. Furthermore, he has never been knocked flat in his entire pro career, which began in 1949.

A wade-in fighter, Panter has had 65 pro fights, winning 51, losing 12 and drawing 2. Hayes, who also started as a pro in 1949, has had 39 fights. His record is 22-16-1.

Panter's biggest victory was in Madison Square Garden last Oct. 23, when he outpointed Pierre Langlois of France.

Hayes has made two appearances in the Olympia ring, losing a 10-round decision to Jake La Motta and knocking out Joey De Johna in the third round.

WHAT'S THIS, STEVE? I BUMPED DON'T TELL ME YOU INTO SOMEONE AND BOOTED THE RECORD ALBUMS!

OH, THAT'S A SHAME! I'LL BET YOU WERE LOOKING FORWARD TO HEARING THEM TONIGHT! YOU KNOW, I HAVE AN IDEA! I KNOW HOW YOU CAN HEAR THESE RECORDS AFTER ALL!

AND NOW DINNER! MY CHEF IS THE VERY BEST!

OH ME... FATTENING US UP FOR THE KILL!

ARRIVING HOME, VIC CHECKS ON HIS MAIL—AND REALES!

LO, LIBBY! VIC! THE LAST NAME, REMEMBER! OH, ABOUT TEN LAST NIGHT...

HOW ABOUT DINNER TONIGHT? OH... TOMORROW NIGHT? WELL, MAYBE OVER THE WEEKEND...

VIC, YOU'VE BEEN AWAY SO LONG! I'M HUNGRY! I'M BORED THROUGH THE WEEKEND...

SO THE LINE FORMS TO THE REAR, DOES IT?

Benton County Hay Shipped Through Ionia

By Mrs. Homer Howe

IONIA — Thirty car loads of hay were shipped into Ionia the past week for distribution to farmers. Some went to farmers near Lincoln and Warsaw being shipped to Ionia as that is the only town in the county located on a railroad. It came from Colorado and Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Von Gartzon moved into their new home at Windsor. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Smith bought the Von Gartzon home in Ionia moving into it Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Pitchford will move into the Mrs. Henry Alt property vacated by the Smiths.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Englebrecht and children and Mrs. Bertha Kormeyer, Kansas City, visited over the weekend with Mr. Englebrecht's parents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Englebrecht.

Ionia school children enjoyed a turkey dinner with all the trimmings at the school Wednesday noon. This is the first year the Ionia school has had a hot lunch program and it is proving a success. Mrs. Emil Wienberg is cook.

Mrs. Clarence Moore and daughters Ellen and Charlotte ate Thanksgiving dinner with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thomas, Windsor.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Cox, Houstonia, visited friends in Ionia Thursday. Rev. Cox was minister at the Methodist Church here four years ago.

Eugene Browning and children spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Browning at the home of her sister Miss Elva Friedly in Kansas City. Mrs. Browning is convalescing from a recent operation.

Mrs. Henry Meier, Cole Camp, who visited in the home of her sister-in-law Mrs. Wm. Krohn during the illness and death of Mr. Krohn has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Wienberg were dinner guests Thanksgiving Day of their daughter Mrs. Elmo Bruns and Mr. Bruns, Cole Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keyte have moved into their home which they recently purchased of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Renfrow and moved onto lots in west Ionia.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Williams had as dinner guests on Thanksgiving Day Mr. and Mrs. Pete Goetz and children of Knob Noster and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Williams and sons David and Larry.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wehrman had all their children home for Thanksgiving day the following: Mrs. Ralph McCarty and three children of Sedalia, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Kendrick and daughter, Jackie and Mrs. Beulah Anderson and son, Keith and daughter, Mary Beth.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Paige and daughter, Marilee and son, Bob, and Forrest Paige of Dallas, Texas, arrived during the weekend to attend the funeral of their uncle, Jasper LeRoy Paige who died of a heart attack at the home of his sister, Mrs. Esther Seivers at Lodi, Calif.

Mrs. Vance Gilles spent the Thanksgiving holidays visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Morrow and her sister Shelley Sue, at their country home south of Green Ridge on highway 127. Mr. Gilles arrived Saturday morning and Sunday afternoon, he and Mrs. Gilles returned to their home near Burlington, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wisdom and daughter, Charlene entertained dinner guests recently on Thursday at their home. Those present were Mrs. Guy B. Neas of Odessa, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Buel Hughes of Borger, Texas.

The following relatives from Kansas City, attended the funeral services of Mrs. Ella Truel Ream which was held at the Green Ridge Presbyterian Church, Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 p. m.: Mrs. Levi Anderson, Mrs. Lloyd Storum, and Mrs. Lyle Denny. They also visited Mrs. Beulah Anderson while in Green Ridge.

Arrest Men After Bank Is Robbed

HOXIE, Ark. (AP)—Two armed men, their tourist cabin bed piled with new money in bank wrappers, were arrested here last night for questioning in an $8,500 early morning robbery of a branch bank at Swifton, Ark.

The arrest climaxed a 13 hour search through a dense woodlands by a posse led by bloodhounds.

State Police Lt. W. D. Walker said one of the men identified himself as John E. Stanley, 29, of Little Rock. He said the second man was identified through cards he was carrying and police pictures as Andrew Jackson Roe, 31, of Clarendon, Ark.

The branch of the Bank of Tuckerman, Ark., was robbed by two men—wearing money sacks as hoods—who broke into the bank; waited for manager Walter McDaniel to open up; and, after robbing the vault and safe, locked him in the vault to gain an hour's start. McDaniel was released by a teller.

An abandoned car found just outside the small East Arkansas city and a farmer's report that he had seen two men duck into the woods from the stalled vehicle started the search that ended at the tourist cabin here, some 30 miles north of Swifton.

Walker said the men told them they had walked about 25 miles through woods and fields, scrambling across roads and railway tracks.

Reports of the men's trek northward came from one couple who told of seeing two men cross Highway 67, and a farmer who reported giving two strangers a ride in his wagon.

Bloodhounds led the posse of some 100 men to a Tuckerman bank wrapper for $1 bills, lying in a wooded section near Hoxie.

The baying hounds were about a mile from here when State Trooper Kenneth Bean got a tip that one of the men was in a drug store in neighboring Walnut Ridge. Meanwhile, Walnut Ridge Night Marshal W. B. Raney saw a stranger leaving the store, notified Bean and his brother, Clarence, chief of police—and the trio trailed the man to the tourist cabin.

Bean said they knocked on the door and when one of the men answered, burst into the cabin. The pair offered no resistance, he said.

The unshaven, disheveled pair was taken to Newport after the arrest. Walker said they would be confronted with McDaniel early today.

Nationalists Protest Transfer of Islands

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The Foreign Office said today Nationalist China has protested a U.S. proposal to transfer the Amami Oshima Islands to Japan. The islands lie between Okinawa and Japan and were Japanese territory until after World War II.

Sunny Side PTA Has Monthly Meeting

The Sunny Side PTA held its November meeting at the school with the president, Mrs. R. R. Reine, presiding.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Marvin Goodwin, who used as her theme: "Education of the Heart" and ended it with a prayer. Monthly reports were given and plans made for the Christmas party which will be held on Dec. 23.

Cooper County 4-H Banquet on Dec. 5

One of the biggest nights of the year for the 4-H boys and girls of Cooper County will be Dec. 5. At this time the annual recognition party will be held at the Rod and Gun Club in Booneville. The party is given only for members who have completed their 1953 projects. All leaders and parents of the 4-H'ers have been invited.

The highlights of the program will be the presentation of pins and special awards to 4-H members.

Painter Is Convicted Of His Wife's Murder

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A circuit court jury convicted Samuel Dean Shriver, 47, a painter, of second degree murder and assessed his penalty at 10 years imprisonment yesterday.

Shriver was charged with fatally beating his wife, Marie, 40, last June 8. He testified that she suffered the injuries in a fall down some stairs at their apartment.

Rev. Simon Phipps, reason for Margaret's interest in religion.

GUESSING GAME—Princess Margaret, free of the long sorrow over the death of her father, King George VI, is busy with a crowded winter program which links her name with those of many escorts. Number 1 on the list of those from whom she might select a husband is 24-year-old Lord Carnegie. Born of royal blood, Carnegie is her second cousin and the only one of her escorts who can call her "Margaret." Other favorites of the 23-year-old Princess Meg are pictured above.

Bob Thomas In Hollywood—

'Oklahoma' Will Be Filmed In Okla., Ariz., and Calif.

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Oklahomans can rest more easily. "Oklahoma!" will be filmed in their state. Also in Arizona and California.

Some Sooners had been wrought up over reports that the film version of the hit musical would be shot on locations in Iowa or elsewhere. I have the assurance of Arthur Hornblow, producer of the film for Rodgers and Hammerstein, that such sacrifice will not take place.

I lunched with Hornblow at Romanoff's and learned many things about the ambitious project. Not too much about the new filming process, Todd-AO, however. Hornblow says that is the province of its namesake, Michael Todd, the mercurial producer.

"We will definitely shoot near Claremore, Okla., which is the actual locale of the story," reported Hornblow, an eager, articulate fellow. "We toured all over the state, shooting thousands of feet of film—an actual panorama of that country. We found some wonderful scenes."

More information about the film version of "Oklahoma!": The script, authored by Sonja Levien and William Ludwig, has already been finished and approved. All the songs from the play will be included. Agnes de Mille has been signed to re-create her dances, but on a scale fitting the scope of the movie screen.

Fred Zinneman, whom Hornblow rightfully calls "the hottest young director in the business," will direct. He's the fellow who did "High Noon" and "From Here to Eternity." This will be his first movie with music (Hornblow doesn't think it should be called a "Musical").

No one has been cast for the parts, although press agents have been busy mentioning their clients as being signed. Tests are being made on both coasts, and R. and H. may choose big names or unknowns. They have complete say-so, naturally. Production is expected to begin in March.

I managed to glean some info about the Todd-AO process. Todd was one of the developers of Cinemascope, but broke away from that strom-tossed organization. He joined with Dr. Brien O'Brien and the American Optical Co. in developing a new filming method. It has been kept under wraps, having been shown only in a theater in Buffalo, N. Y., near the AO plant. Cinemascope and Cinemascope are wide screen methods. Apparently, Todd-AO is not. It is also projected on a big, curved screen, but the proportion is much the same as ordinary screens. It's bigger, that's all.

Ordinary movies are made on 35mm film. Todd-AO is done on 65mm. Big difference.

Workers Close British Plants In Pay Strike

LONDON (AP)—More than one million engineering workers today closed British auto and aircraft factories, shipyards and machine shops in a 24-hour token strike for more pay.

It was Britain's biggest labor tie-up since the general strike of 1926. From London to Glasgow and Belfast the hum of machinery ceased. Work benches were deserted.

The Confederation of Shipbuilding and Engineering Unions, an organization with 39 affiliates, called the "show of strength" walk-out in support of a demand for a 15 per cent wage increase.

Industries involved estimated the production loss would reach 10 million pounds ($28 million dollars). Pickets guarded the gates of factories throughout the country as strikers gathered for mass meetings and protest marches.

There were no reports of disorders.

All public services operated normally. Government plants such as ordnance factories and power stations also were exempt.

Workers affected included fitters, boilermakers, patternmakers, electricians, foundry men, copersmiths, structural steelworkers and tens of thousands in semi-skilled and unskilled categories.

June Haver May Take Co-Star Role in Film 'My Sister Eileen'

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Negotiations are under way for actress June Haver to co-star in the movie "My Sister Eileen."

Miss Haver, who quit Hollywood and a $3,500-a-week job to enter a Catholic convent last February, may make her screen comeback early next year. She and her agent, Ned Marin, and producer Jerry Wald have gone over tentative plans, and a Columbia Pictures spokesman says "June likes the idea." Further talks are scheduled next week.

The 26-year-old actress was in the convent 7 1/2 months, studying to become a nun. Then she returned home, saying ill health forced her to give up religious life.

Glass milk bottles were first developed about 70 years ago.

Man, 92, Files Claim For Work Compensation

CHICAGO (AP)—A 92-year-old man who still works daily filed a claim under the Illinois workmen's compensation law yesterday.

David R. Steffey wants compensation for a broken leg he suffered when he slipped on a water meter plate Nov. 6 in the building occupied by his employer, the General Produce Co.

Kenneth Hecht, Steffey's attorney, said officials believed Steffey probably was the oldest worker ever to file a claim under the Illinois State Compensation Act.
